Consent to use Telehealth Services

AK Child & Family

Telehealth services may be used in the course of treatment at AK Child & Family. The service that is used is secure and encrypted in order to protect the privacy of the services. These services are not required and will only be conducted with the consent of the student and / or parent / guardian. Telehealth services are subject to the following procedures and understandings:

- Telehealth services provide the benefit of face to face interaction although you will not be in the same room as your provider. Whether or not to utilize Telehealth services will be a mutual decision agreed upon by both the student / guardian / parent and service provider. In some cases, the service provider may recommend services that require the student / guardian / parent's physical presence if reasonably possible.
- Telehealth services will be scheduled in advance at a designated time agreed upon by both the student / parent / guardian and provider.
- Telehealth services provided via computer should be accessed through a safe and secure connection. Be sure to use a computer that is in a confidential or private area and always fully exit all online counseling sessions when they are complete.
- Telehealth services may also include online functionality, such as posting of notes or chat logs during the session. This information may be printed by your provider, and if so, it will be treated as confidential.
- If Telehealth services cannot be conducted due to technical difficulties, you should immediately contact your provider to schedule a new session.

Using Telehealth services is entirely voluntary and will not impact the quality of care you receive from AK Child & Family should you decide not to use these services. AK Child & Family will not condition treatment or payment for health care on whether or not you use Telehealth services or sign this agreement.

AK Child & Family is not liable for any claims and / or damages arising from following:

- i. Interruption in the ability to conduct Telehealth services due to technical difficulties, technical maintenance, or system failure.
- ii. Access by friends, family members or other third parties who may enter the room on the patient side during Telehealth sessions.
- iii. Breaches of privacy and security due to the fault of the third party videoconferencing provider.

Telehealth Consent

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read and fully understand the information in this document. You have been given the risks and benefits of such services and technologies, and understand the risks associated with online communications with AK Child & Family, and consent to the conditions as indicated herein. In addition, you agree to adhere to the policies set forth above, as well as any other instructions or guidelines that AK Child & Family may impose for using the electronic communications.
